

The drying up of the river at the Niamey station started in mid April will continue until the last dekad of May 2020. The water level expected during the last dekad of May 2020 is around 151 cm.

This level is higher than the low water warning threshold at Niamey.

Download the Low Water Alert Bulletin in Niamey