

NBA is recruiting a consultant to support the identification, collection of geospatial information layers and automatic calculation of twenty-three (23) priority indicators to assess the environmental and socio-economic profile of the Niger Basin.

This consultancy aims in the short and medium term to contribute to the domestication of the production of data related to the 23 priority environmental and socioeconomic indicators of the environmental and socioeconomic profile of the Niger Basin and, in the long term, the stabilization, standardization and sustainability of the EIS information production system.

Download the Terms of Reference

GIZ link where there is all the information on the market and the procedure